In complying with the May 4, 2007 decision of the Surface Transportation Board terminating antitrust immunity for collective activity relating to ratemaking and competitive terms, AMSA has taken the following steps:

- Dissolved the Household Goods Carriers Bureau Committee as of January 1, 2008;
- Adopted new antitrust guidelines for association activities;
- Adopted new antitrust guidelines for association meetings;
- Disclaimed any copyright or other property rights in HGCBC tariffs 400-N, 400-M, 600 and all other Bureau tariffs, and made those tariffs available to any party without any license or fee;
- Ceased all activities to publish tariffs on behalf of members as of January 1, 2008;
- Ceased all efforts to update, revise, maintain or program any Bureau tariffs as of January 1, 2008;
- Ended efforts to license or restrict the use of Bureau tariffs by any party; and
- Ceased efforts to train any tariff publishers or other entities in the use, operation, function, revision, programming or maintenance of Bureau tariffs or their respective software.